

An integrated system of solutions, under one umbrella.

Ovik Technical Services is the parent company of a group of specialized firms, uniting the power of specialization within a single framework of integration and professionalism.

WHO WE ARE

Welcome to Ovik Technical Services

Ovik Technical Services was founded on the principle of integration and professionalism — to be a comprehensive ecosystem of specialized solutions that support the growth of businesses, individuals, and society across vital sectors.

Under our umbrella we bring together a select group of subsidiaries, each a leader in its field, to deliver an exceptional, integrated service — from construction, materials, and technology, all the way to strategic management and effective marketing.

05

Specialized subsidiaries, each a leader in its field

01

Single point of contact for all your needs

End-to-end solutions — from construction, materials & technology to management & marketing.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

The power of specialization, within a framework of integration.

We unite the depth of expertise in every sector with the breadth of a system that connects them together — so you achieve coherent results, with no fragmentation.

Ovik Technical Services draws its strength from its diverse subsidiaries, which operate as specialized arms meeting every requirement of modern business.
